SET UP AND TEAR DOWN ARE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE USER

(NON-ATTENDERS WILL BE REQUIRED TO USE A CHURCH REPRESENTATIVE TO SET/RESET AREAS - SEE FEE SCHEDULE)

PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR RESTORING ROOM BACK TO ORIGINAL CONDITION

Name: _____ Cell No.: _____

IMPORTANT REGULATIONS

1. A cleaning deposit of $75 (separate check from rental fees) is required for all non-church events. (i.e. Weddings, Showers, Funerals, Parties, etc...)
2. Room(s) is(are) to be requested and reserved at least 10 days in advance (subject to availability on church master calendar) and will be on a first come first serve basis.
3. If the renter is not a regular attender of The Gateway Church, or if the size of the function determines that everything in the room must be removed, a church representative will be assigned to remove everything and set church's furnishings that are to be used; this will be at an additional fee (See fee schedule). The church representative will also be responsible for returning these objects and resetting the room.
4. For regular attender's smaller events, it is the responsibility of the person who has reserved the room to set up tables, chairs and their own decorations for their function. This same person is responsible to return tables & chairs to their original location, remove all decorations and make sure the room is clean and returned to the condition (or better) and configuration as they found it.
5. If you will need more tables and chairs than what is already available, you will need to rent them from an outside source.
6. No FOOD or DRINKS in the SANCTUARY. Unless sanctuary is rented for the express purpose of an event that includes food.
7. No punches or drinks that contain RED DYE are allowed anywhere on the premises.
8. Only The Gateway Church Sound Technicians are allowed to work the sound board, or move sound equipment and instruments from platform in the Sanctuary and Gateway Kids Area. If you will need a sound technician for your event, we will secure a technician on your behalf. The drum cage CANNOT be moved. (See fee schedule)
9. Video projection in Sanctuary or Gateway Kids Area is only to be done by one of The Gateway Church's Technicians. If this is required, we will secure a technician on your behalf. (See fee schedule)
10. Rooms used must be cleaned and in the same condition (or better) than received.
11. The church will not be responsible for any lost, stolen or damaged items.
12. If the room(s) is/are not in satisfactory condition after your event, the cleaning deposit will be forfeited. Excessive damage to walls, carpet etc. will also be billed to the user in the amount that is in excess of the cleaning deposit. Deposits will only be refunded after rooms/grounds are inspected and in satisfactory condition.
13. SMOKING AND/OR ALCHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE NOT PERMITTED ANYWHERE ON THE PREMISES.
14. Emergency exits are NOT to be blocked in any way. There must be at least 3ft square open space in front of emergency exit doors. All hallways must have at least 3 ft wide passageway.
15. Tables & chairs owned by The Gateway Church CANNOT be used outside of the building.
16. No pets/animals inside the building – you must clean up after any animal brought onto the premises during your function.
17. All outdoor items (tents, tables, chairs, etc) must be removed from the premises before the next church service.

KITCHEN SPECIFIC REGULATIONS

18. You may use any of the appliances in the kitchen. They must be cleaned and left in working condition. DO NOT leave any food in the kitchen or refrigerator after your function is over.
19. You must bring in your own dishcloths and towels for your use while working in the kitchen. The church does not furnish plates, napkins, cups, cutlery, tablecloths, paper products or serving utensils. This is the obligation of the caterer. If your caterer does not furnish these items, you will be responsible for making them available for your function. Any and all food/beverages are to be supplied by you or your caterer. Do not use the church's food/beverages.
20. If you use any of the kitchen utensils or dishes, they must be washed and put away. (Anything broken must be replaced.)
21. We do not have a full service kitchen, only prepared food can be brought in.

Thank you for your cooperation.
